

Webliography

The following webliography was created to provide information regarding Technology Facilitation Standard VI that addresses, "Social Ethical, Legal and Human Issues. Educational technology facilitators understand the social, ethical, legal, and human issues surrounding the use of technology in P-12 schools and assist teachers in applying that understanding in their practice." The following sites aide teachers in teaching Fair Use and Copyright laws as well as the legal, ethical and human issues surrounding intellectual property.

<http://www.b4ucopy.com/kids/index.html> Information on copyright laws.

<http://novemberlearning.com/resources/information-literacy-resources/> Provides extensive resources on information literacy for parents, teachers and students.

<http://www.teachingcopyright.org/> Informs teachers about copyright laws and provides curriculum to teach students.

http://blog.lib.umn.edu/copyinfo/scenarios/cat_teaching.html

The University of Minnesota Library created this site to keep teachers informed of copyright laws. It provides copyright scenarios of proper and improper use of information for classroom use and discussion.

<http://library.duke.edu/blogs/scholcomm/copyright-in-teaching/>

Duke University is keeping teachers abreast of common classroom copyright issues. The questions posted address classroom, website and project issues.

<http://creativecommons.org/weblog/entry/14707>

The site provides information on the Code of Best Practices in Fair Use for Media Literacy Education. The site includes materials to help teachers teach about copyright and fair use.

<http://www.mediafestival.org/copyrightchart.html>

A classroom chart of copyright and fair use guidelines.

<http://eduscapes.com/tap/topic24.htm>

This site provides professional development resources for educators and librarians. There are many links to useful teaching and curriculum sites specific to Copyright and Fair Use.

