The following information represents positive steps that I can take to improve my technology facilitator qualifications. There are several additional classes that are available to me as well as professional development tools to keep my education ongoing.

EDTC 631 Technology Facilitator: Issues and Challenges (3)

This course prepares candidates to serve as technology facilitators—professionals who promote the development and implementation of technology infrastructure, procedures, policies, plans, and budgets for P-12 schools. An analysis of district wide and school curriculum needs, state agency mandates and federal imperatives as well as personnel roles and services will be conducted.

EDTC 661 Administration and Supervision of Library Media Centers (3)

This course looks at the management of school library media centers—an analysis of policies and procedures applicable to these centers. The course will develop an understanding of the role, duties, and responsibilities of the professional school library media specialist as well as the role of school library media centers in the educational community. These are examined in light of people, procedures, and media. (Prerequisites: EDTC 655 Internship, EDTC 618 Learning Theories, and EDTC 631 Technology Facilitator. This course can be taken as a prerequisite to, or as a co-requisite with, EDTC 662 Advanced Field Experience. This course cannot be taken after EDTC 662.)

EDT C 662 Advanced Field Experience (3)

Candidates are assigned to work within a school library media center, working under an established in the managerial and decision-making responsibilities of the position. Through mutual agreement among the candidate, the media center administrator, and the professor, a program of work is designed that integrates the duties and responsibilities of an educational media specialist. A graduate field experience project is required. (Prerequisites: EDTC 655 Internship, EDTC 618 Learning Theories, and EDTC 631 Technology Facilitator. This course can be taken as a prerequisite to, or as a co-requisite with, EDTC 661 Administration and Supervision of Library Media Centers. This course cannot be taken before EDTC 661.)
